I. Introduction

The Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act (“Clery Act”) requires educational institutions to provide all current and prospective students and employees with the security policies and regulations of the University, and the statistics of crime occurrences. These security regulations are designed to ensure the safety of all individuals at Strayer University, and as such, all members of the campus community and visitors are expected to conduct themselves in a manner that respects the rights of all within the community.

Observance of Strayer University regulations, as well as federal, state, and local laws, is required in order to fulfill the purposes of the educational institution. Although the University strives to ensure a safe environment, each person must take ultimate responsibility for his/her own safety and that of his/her personal belongings.

II. Campus Security Procedures

For additional information on policies and regulations, consult the Strayer University Student Handbook or Faculty and Staff Handbook. Policies and procedures listed are subject to change at any time without prior notice.

A. Reporting a Crime or Emergency

Any person in immediate danger due to crime or emergency should contact local police immediately by dialing 911. When the emergency has subsided, the victim should also report the crime as soon as possible to the Campus Director of the location where the incident occurred.

For nonemergency situations, any person who is a victim, witness or has knowledge of any criminal activity or other emergency on campus should report it immediately to the Campus Director of the campus where the incident occurred or, during the evening hours, to security personnel, if available. Listed below are the Campus Directors for each campus location.

Persons reporting crimes will be asked to complete incident report or witness report forms, including the date, time, place, nature of the incident, names of witnesses, if any, and any other pertinent facts. The report should be co-signed by the Campus Director and sent to the applicable Regional Director and the University’s Chief Security Officer immediately. The University’s Chief Security Officer will distribute the report to other appropriate University officials as the situation warrants.

All reports will be investigated. The University does not have procedures for voluntary, confidential reporting of crime statistics. Violations of the law will be referred to law enforcement agencies and when appropriate, to the Dean of Student Affairs or the Director of Human Resources, as appropriate, for review. When a potentially dangerous threat to the University community arises, timely reports or warnings will be issued though e-mail announcements, the posting of flyers at local campuses, in-class announcements, or other appropriate means.

C. Security Personnel

Local police have the authority to enforce all applicable regulations and laws. Campus Directors work closely with the local and state police on incidents occurring on campus. Reports of violations of laws and regulations should be made promptly to the Campus Director or to security personnel on duty, if available to ensure that the appropriate action is taken.

Strayer University typically employs security personnel to patrol regularly the buildings and parking areas of the campuses, identifying any unusual activity. The security personnel are authorized to enforce Strayer University rules and policies but do not have the authority to arrest individuals. Security personnel are instructed to call the police whenever necessary. Security guards regularly communicate with Campus Directors regarding campus security matters to ensure all criminal activities are reported. Where feasible, students may request a security guard escort to parking areas on campus.

D. Security of Facilities

Strayer University, although a private facility, maintains an open campus environment to allow freedom of movement for members of the community. The buildings are unlocked during class hours and at extended times before and after classes, so that students may utilize the available facilities.

Strayer University facilities, such as classrooms, learning resource centers, computer centers, and student lounges, have the primary purpose of supporting the educational programs of the University. They are available for use by current students, alumni, and employees of Strayer University, and upon request, may be available to the general public.

Strayer University makes the security of its campus community a priority and typically provides security guards at its campuses. All students are required to obtain Strayer University identification cards and must be prepared to produce such identification upon request. Visitors to Strayer University campuses are asked to sign in with the security guard upon entering the campus. The majority of Strayer University campuses are equipped with electronic, centrally monitored security systems, including fire alarms.

Occasionally, Strayer University will use video surveillance to monitor activities at a campus location. Video surveillance cameras are placed in public areas and are either clearly visible or a notice is posted in the surveillance area.

E. Campus Security and Crime Prevention Programs

An overview of campus security policies is provided in the Student Handbook, available on the studentserver.strayer.edu website and the Faculty and Staff Handbook, available on the Strayer University intranet. From time to time, Strayer University will provide security information via e-mail, postal mail or flyers in local campuses regarding security alerts and events. Local campuses may also organize crime prevention events consistent with campus security needs, such as information sessions with local police.

F. Monitoring of Off-Campus Locations

Strayer University does not have off-campus housing facilities, off-campus student organization facilities or any other off-campus facilities and therefore does not monitor reports of criminal activity at off-campus locations. Strayer University does, however, coordinate with local police departments to monitor crime in the neighborhoods immediately surrounding local campuses.

G. Safety Tips

Here are some common sense tips for personal safety and loss prevention:

- Protect your possessions; keep bookbags and purses with you at all times or locked in a secure place.
- When working late at the computer center or learning resources center, ask the security guard or other students to walk with you to your car.
- Walk with other people whenever possible; avoid isolated areas such as alleys, wooded areas, and poorly lit or deserted parking lots and streets.
- Walk with confidence - show you are alert and in control. Be aware of your surroundings.
- If you think someone is following you, abruptly switch directions or cross the street. If you're still being followed, go to a public place and ask for help.
- Have your car or house keys available before you reach your door.
- Don't flash large amounts of cash or other valuable objects.
- I.D. tags with your name, address, or license number on your key chains should be avoided; if lost, they could lead to theft.
- Keep car doors and windows locked.
- If your purse or wallet is being stolen, don't fight for it. Rather than risk personal injury, release it and report the incident to the security guard on duty or the Campus Director.
- Immediately contact security or the Campus Director to report any criminal incidents or suspicious persons.

III. Campus Security Policies

A. Alcohol and Drug Policies

1. Drug-Free Policy.

The possession, use, or distribution of alcohol and illicit drugs by members of the Strayer University community on any campus facility during class, study, or work periods is incompatible with the goals of the University. No employee or student should report to work or class while under the influence of alcohol or illegal drugs. Violators of these rules are subject to evaluation/treatment for a substance use disorder, or to disciplinary action as set forth in the Student Handbook, up to and including termination or expulsion.

a. Alcohol Policy.

The possession, consumption, or sale of alcohol on campus or at University-sponsored activities is prohibited, unless specifically sanctioned by the University and allowed by state and local alcoholic beverage regulations. The use of alcoholic beverages in the following instances must be approved by the President or his designee: (1) on campus and at functions sponsored by, or primarily for, students; and (2) at off-campus student functions sponsored by recognized student organizations.

Non-alcoholic beverages and food items must be available at the same place as the alcoholic beverages and readily accessible as long as alcoholic beverages are available. Advertisements for social functions may not describe the availability of alcohol as a promotional tool nor promote consumption of alcohol by minors.

All persons must have proof of age at any activity involving the consumption of alcoholic beverages. If alcoholic beverages are served, the sponsoring organization must implement precautionary measures to ensure that alcoholic beverages are not accessible or served to persons under the legal drinking age or to persons who appear to be intoxicated.

Individuals involved in the illegal use or distribution of alcohol are subject to arrest and University disciplinary action.

b. Drugs.

Strayer prohibits the possession, use, or distribution of illegal drugs on University property. Possession, sale, use, or distribution of controlled substances, including marijuana, is a violation of federal and state laws and University policy. Students and employees who violate state or federal drug laws will be referred by Strayer University to the appropriate authorities for criminal prosecution, and, if convicted, may be subject to suspension, termination, or expulsion from the University.

2. Legal Sanctions for Unlawful Possession of Alcohol and Drugs

In addition to violating University policy, unlawful possession of alcohol and drugs may violate federal and state laws. Students and employees entering University property under the influence of alcohol or drugs will be referred to treatment and/or reported to local authorities. All other persons will be reported to local authorities immediately. The following summary provides information on some of the potential legal penalties for drug and alcohol violations:

a. Alcohol Violations

The legal drinking age in the United States is 21 in all 50 states and the District of Columbia. Legal drinking age is 18 in the U.S. Virgin Islands, Puerto Rico and Guam. Persons possessing or consuming alcohol under the legal drinking age may face fines or jail time. Many states impose severe penalties for persons using false identification to purchase or consume alcohol.

Driving while under the influence of alcohol is a serious offense. In addition to restrictions on blood alcohol content for drivers above the legal drinking age, many states also have strict “zero tolerance” laws prohibiting driving under the influence of any amount of alcohol if the driver is under the age of 21.

b. Drug Violations

Possession of any controlled substance, including drugs such as marijuana, cocaine, LSD and ecstasy, as well as unauthorized prescription medications, drug paraphernalia and materials used to manufacture or distribute illegal drugs, can result in serious penalties under federal and state laws, including imprisonment and large fines. Penalties increase sharply if the conviction involves possession, distribution or manufacture of controlled substances while on the grounds of a school or college.

In addition, students convicted of possessing or selling illegal drugs (not including alcohol and tobacco) may be ineligible to participate in federal student loan programs offered by the U.S. Department of Education. Additional information on penalties for violating controlled substance laws can be found at the website for the Drug Enforcement Administration, located at the following link:

<http://www.deadiversion.usdoj.gov/21cfr/21usc/21idusct.htm>

3. Health Risks of Alcohol and Drug Use.

Health risks associated with use of alcohol and illicit drugs include physical and psychological addiction; permanent damage to vital organs, such as the brain and liver; complications during pregnancy; loss of motor coordination; psychological and mood disorders; and increased risk of several types of cancers. For additional information on alcohol- and drug-related health risks, please visit www.factsontap.org, www.drugfreeamerica.org and <http://www.whitehousedrugpolicy.gov>.

4. Treatment Resources for Alcohol and Drug Addiction

Students or employees who need assistance in overcoming alcohol- or drug-related problems are encouraged to contact the substance abuse organizations listed below or in the additional resource listing in Part V of this report.

Substance Abuse & Mental Health Services Association 1-800-662-HELP,
www.samhsa.gov

SAMHSA is the Federal agency charged with improving the quality and availability of prevention, treatment, and rehabilitative services in order to reduce illness, death, disability, and cost to society resulting from substance abuse and mental illnesses.

The SAMHSA website has a treatment facility locator searchable by type of treatment, form of treatment and forms of payment accepted.

American Council on Alcoholism 1-800-527-5344, www.aca-usa.org

The American Council on Alcoholism (ACA) is a national non-profit health organization dedicated to educating the public about the effects of alcohol, alcoholism, and alcohol abuse, as well as the need for prompt, effective, available, and affordable treatment.

Alcoholics Anonymous www.aa.org

Alcoholics Anonymous is worldwide with meetings in almost every community. Contact a nearby central office, intergroup, or answering service to find specific locations. Telephone numbers for Alcoholics Anonymous are often listed in local telephone directories. Outside of the United States and Canada, contact the International General Services Office.

B. Sexual Assault

Programs in sexual assault prevention are offered periodically as part of campus crime prevention programs. Any person who is a victim of a sex offense should report the incident immediately to appropriate law enforcement authorities, or to campus security or the Campus Director who will assist in notifying these authorities if requested.

Preserving evidence for proof of a criminal offense is an important consideration for victims of sexual offenses and victims should contact police immediately after the attack.

Referral information is available for general counseling and medical attention. Responsiveness to the needs of crime victims is a University priority.

Sexual assault is a crime punishable by both civil and criminal legal action. The Disciplinary Committee adjudicates, at the request of the victim, all cases involving sexual assault in which the alleged perpetrator is a Strayer University student or employee. Disciplinary hearings for cases involving sex offenses will follow the general disciplinary procedures outlined in the Strayer University Student Handbook. During disciplinary proceedings involving alleged sex offenses, both the accuser and the accused are entitled to the same opportunities to have others present and shall be informed of the final outcome of the proceedings, including any sanction against the accused. Students and employees found guilty of sex offenses in University disciplinary proceedings may be subject to suspension, termination, or expulsion from the University.

Strayer University will provide alternatives for a victim's academic situation after an alleged sex offense, if requested by the victim and if alternatives are reasonably available. Strayer University also encourages victims to prosecute alleged perpetrators to the fullest extent of the law.

Any member of the campus community requiring additional information on sexual assault is welcome to contact the toll-free, 24-hour National Sexual Assault Hotline, operated by RAINN (the Rape, Abuse, & Incest National Network), at 1.800.656.HOPE for free, confidential counseling. The RAINN website at www.rainn.org also provides information. Additional sexual assault resources are provided in part V of this report.

C. Registered Sex Offenders

Information on registered sex offenders living and working in the areas near Strayer University campuses (if any) may be obtained through the following state law enforcement websites. Strayer University is not responsible for the accuracy of data provided on these websites.

D. Sexual Harassment

Strayer University strictly prohibits sexual harassment of students, faculty, or staff. Sexual harassment is defined as unwelcome sexual advances; requests for sexual favors; or other verbal, non-verbal, physical conduct, or written communication of a sexual nature when the conduct of such is sufficiently severe, persistent, or pervasive that it denies or limits a student's ability to participate in or benefit from the education program or that it creates a hostile or abusive educational environment.

Sexual harassment violates Strayer University policy as well as state and federal law. Any incidents of sexual harassment should be reported immediately to the Campus Director or to the Dean of Student Affairs so that prompt and effective actions can be taken. The Dean of Student Affairs may be reached at (202) 419-0400; her office is located at 1133 Fifteenth Street, NW, Suite 300, Washington, D.C. 20005. Allegations of sexual harassment will be investigated thoroughly and expeditiously, and appropriate corrective actions will be taken, which may include discipline or dismissal of the harassing party. Additional information on the University's policies on sexual harassment may be found in the Student Handbook and the Faculty and Staff Handbook.

It is unlawful to retaliate or discriminate in any way against any person who has expressed concern or made any complaint regarding sexual harassment, and Strayer University will not retaliate or discriminate against any person who expresses concern or files a complaint alleging sexual harassment or discrimination.

E. Weapons

The unauthorized possession, use, or sale of firearms, ammunition, fireworks, explosives, or dangerous weapons of any type is strictly prohibited on or in campus facilities, and is subject to criminal sanctions as well as University discipline.

F. Hazing

The University does not condone any hazing or mistreatment of another student so as to cause mental or bodily injury. The Dean of Student Affairs shall, upon satisfactory proof of violation of this policy by any student, expel the guilty party and, if appropriate, report the incident to local authorities for criminal prosecution.

IV. Crime Statistics

A. Description of Statistics Reported

The Clery Act requires that universities provide crime statistics to their students with regard to the following offenses, as defined by the Federal Bureau of Investigation's Uniform Crime Reporting Program.

- Criminal Homicide
  - Murder & Nonnegligent manslaughter
  - Negligent manslaughter
- Sex Offenses (Forcible and Non-Forcible)
- Robbery
- Aggravated Assault
- Burglary
- Motor Vehicle Theft
- Arson
- Liquor, Drug and Illegal Weapons Possession Offenses
- Hate Crimes (including other crimes of bodily injury)

The Clery Act also requires that universities report not only crimes occurring on campus but also crimes occurring in the local neighborhoods surrounding each campus. Crime statistics for calendar years 2003, 2004 and 2005 for these categories of offenses are provided below. These crime statistics indicate the number of reported occurrences of each crime by campus, but do not necessarily reflect arrests or convictions. Strayer University assumes no responsibility for the accuracy of crime statistics reported by local police jurisdictions.

B. Procedure for Annual Reporting of Crime Statistics

At the end of each calendar year, the Dean of Institutional Research and Assessment will collect crime data from the University's Chief Security Officer, all Campus Directors, other University officials as appropriate, and local police jurisdictions for inclusion in the University's annual crime statistics report. Campus incidents will be classified according to the definitions of the Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook published by the Federal Bureau of Investigation. A report to the campus community, including statistics for crimes required to be reported under the Clery Act, will be published no later than October 1st of the year following the reporting period. Notification of the availability of the report will be sent via e-mail as well as via flyers posted in local campuses.

C. Campus Crime Reporting Areas

Below are descriptions of the locations of the University's campus locations. Maps are also provided for selected campuses, indicating the location of University campuses and their associated parking areas. Crimes occurring within campus buildings and associated parking areas are included in the statistics provided for campus crimes. Local police jurisdictions were requested to provide crime reports for the approximately 1-block radius surrounding each campus. Due to the limitations of police crime reporting systems, crime statistics provided by the police may cover an area greater than a 1-block radius. Statistics provided by local police jurisdictions do not distinguish between on-campus buildings or property, noncampus buildings or property and public property.
